Revelation 22:12-17, 20
169-558-171/214-219

“Yes, I Am Coming Soon!”

- I. That’s a promise.
- II. That’s an invitation.
- III. That’s our prayer.

Dear Christian friends,

These verses take us to the END of Revelation – the end of the Bible – and we could also say to the end of John’s life. John was probably in his upper 80s or low 90s. No doubt John didn’t live much longer after this. WHAT A LIFE he’d had! I’m sure it hadn’t turned out the way he HAD EXPECTED it to when he was young.

John had grown up near Capernaum along the shores of the Sea of Galilee. He and his brother James worked with and would one day take over their father Zebedee’s fishing business. SO the plans were. THEN John met Jesus as his Savior and that totally changed everything. For three years John was an EYE and EAR witness to Jesus. He was “the disciple whom Jesus loved” - a part of the “INNER THREE” with Peter and James. John had BEEN THERE on Palm Sunday – Maundy Thursday – at Calvary on Good Friday. John had seen the risen Lord Jesus – had watched as Jesus ascended into heaven.

John was the only apostle still alive. The rest had all been martyred. John was now exiled to a tiny island called “Patmos” off the western coast of Turkey because of his Christian faith. John HADN’T SEEN Jesus since Jesus had ascended 60 years earlier. But then Jesus appeared to John in these revelations. John saw Jesus in His glory. Jesus showed John VISIONS of scary tribulations and glorious triumphs. As Jesus now says “good bye” to John – Jesus’ FINAL WORDS to John and all Christians since there are, “Yes, I am coming soon!” THAT’S 1)a promise, 2)an invitation and 3)our prayer.

I. That’s a promise.

Actually three times in these closing verses Jesus promises, “Yes, look, I am coming soon!” After what Jesus has all shown us in the preceding chapters that is a promise to SAVOR!

Last Thursday was Ascension Day. Next Sunday is Pentecost. On God’s calendar Pentecost also marks the start of the “last days” leading up to “the Last Day” – Judgment Day. That’s the ONLY BIG THING left on God’s plans for this world. Here in Revelation Jesus reveals what life in these “last days” of the world will be like for His people. With STRIKING VISIONS meant to impress and stick with us Jesus MAKES CLEAR that we are not to expect any kind of a heaven here on earth. We are the Church Militant – the Church AT WAR and UNDER ATTACK. We hear God’s people ask, “How long, Sovereign Lord?” We hear the refrain, “This calls for patient endurance – be faithful.”

Yet AS SCARY and DEPRESSING as life will get Jesus also repeatedly shows and assures us of the ULTIMATE VICTORY of eternal life in heaven. Read Revelations visions of heaven and let them lift you ABOVE the hardships and troubles of this life! Look often at that “great multitude standing before the throne of God and in front of the Lamb.” See again “the new heaven and new earth” where there “will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain.” Hear again God promise, “I am making everything new!”

Then savor Jesus’ CLOSING promise, “Yes, I am coming soon.” Eternal life in heaven is not just a NICE THOUGHT or a pious wish. That is God’s promise to us and God ALWAYS keeps His promises. Life now can be WEARISOME but we have Jesus’ promise, “Yes, I am coming soon” – coming to take us to eternal life in heaven. No wonder Paul wrote that “our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.”

“Yes, I am coming soon!” is both a promise AND...

II. An invitation.

“I, Jesus, have sent My angel to give you this testimony for the churches.” Jesus reveals this to us because he WANTS US TO KNOW this. Jesus doesn't want us to be CAUGHT BY SURPRISE or caught unprepared when He comes again. So He repeatedly tells us, “Look, yes, I am coming soon!” We're reminded that God didn't give us His Word to BORE or CONFUSE us – or for us to ignore or contradict. God gave us His Word to “make us wise unto salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.” God gave us His Word to be “a lamp to our feet and a light for our path” through this sindarkened world. Or as Paul told the Roman Christians, “Everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through patient endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures, we would have hope.”

“Yes, I am coming soon!” is an invitation – an URGENT CALL! – to get ready. AS REAL and eternal as heaven is hell is JUST AS real and eternal. Jesus bluntly warns, “Outside are the dogs, that is, the sorcerers, the adulterers, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.” Our society may HAVE NO PROBLEM with sex outside of marriage – living together without being married – with gay marriage, pornography, etc. – but God does. Paul warned the Corinthian Christians NOT TO SHRUG the warnings off. “Do not be deceived (i.e., don't kid yourselves): Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers, nor men who have sex with men nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.”

Beware too of that MOST POPULAR idol of self – “I'll do whatever I want. Nobody can tell me what to believe or how to live my life.” We may not bow down and worship ourselves but EVERY TIME we ignore or defy anything God says – that's idolatry – PUTTING OURSELVES over God. God may tell me I NEED TO CHANGE my priorities in life – clean up my language – be more faithful in worship and prayer, etc. – when WE DON'T DO that that's the sin of idolatry. We're not letting God BE GOD of our lives – our WHOLE life.

“Yes, I am coming soon!” is a call to DAILY repentance and renewed faith in Jesus. “Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the Tree of Life and so that they may enter through the gates into the city” (the New Jerusalem, heaven). We had that picture a few weeks ago in chapter 7. Those standing in that “great multitude before the throne of God and in front of the Lamb” they had “washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.”

It's only because Jesus CAME THE FIRST time that we can confidently and eagerly look forward to His coming again. Our Christian joy and confidence are not, “Look how I'VE CLEANED up my life!” but “Look HOW JESUS has cleaned up me!” When we stand before God He won't see a SINGLE ONE of our sins because “the blood of Jesus, His (God's) Son, cleanses us from all sin.” Jesus' innocent sufferings and death on the cross fully paid for every one of our sins. NOT ONLY that God will see us as His PERFECTLY OBEDIENT children because Jesus clothes and credits us with His own life of perfect love and obedience. TRUSTING in Jesus we have God's forgiveness of all our sins – we are God's beloved children – and we can't wait for Jesus to come again and take us home to heaven!

That joy and certainty in Jesus has TWO MAJOR IMPACTS on our lives now. “Look, I am coming soon and my reward is with Me, to repay each one according to what he has done.” IF we were unbelievers it would BE TERRIFYING to hear that. That would be our eternal death sentence to hell – “repaid according to what we've done.” But as Christians that's JUST MORE PROOF of how good and gracious our God is. Our trying to live GOD-CENTERED – God-PLEASING – lives doesn't score us points with God or help us get to heaven. We are saved ONLY BY TRUSTING in Jesus and what He's all done but that faith in our hearts WILL SHOW UP in our daily lives.

I had to clean out some dead canes from my raspberry patch. How did I know WHICH ONES were dead or alive? I didn't have to cut them open to see. If they're budding they're alive – if they're dried up and bare they're dead. GET THE PICTURE? Our Christian lives WON'T SAVE us one bit but they are good indications of WHAT KIND OF SHAPE our Christian faith is in. Oh, our Christian lives NEED CONSTANT weeding and feeding – pruning and hoeing or our faith will be overrun and killed off by the weeds of sin. As an ADDED ENCOURAGEMENT to be diligent in our Christian lives Jesus graciously promises to “reward” us for doing what He tells us to do!

Our joy and certainty in Jesus ALSO MAKE us want to boldly share our Jesus with others. We know that if we DIDN'T HAVE Jesus we'd be going to hell's eternal banishment and punishment. That's also true about EVERYBODY ELSE in the world. Jesus is the ONLY Savior – the only way to heaven. “Whoever believes in Jesus shall not perish, but has eternal life – but whoever does not believe will be condemned.” Christian love and gratitude COMPEL us to share Jesus with others – BOTH our personally telling our families, friends, neighbors, etc., about Jesus AND our generously supporting Christian education and mission work.

So the invitation rings out to ONE AND ALL for none our excluded. “The Spirit and the bride (i.e., the Church) say, ‘Come.’ And let the one who hears this say, ‘Come.’ And let the one who is thirsty come. Let the one who wants the water of life take it as a gift.”

III. A prayer.

“The one who testifies about these things says, ‘Yes, I am coming soon.’” Jesus' definition of “soon” is OBVIOUSLY NOT ours. Peter helps us understand this. “The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand slowness. Instead He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.” Jesus' seeming delay – His GRACIOUS PATIENCE – doesn't change His promise, “I am coming soon!” – and what a day – what an ETERNITY – that will be!

We have Jesus' promise and so we fervently pray AS JOHN did when he FIRST HEARD it – and as Christians throughout the ages have been praying – “Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!” Amen.
